Benton, a British subject. This action was taken after receipt of a report from General Villa regarding the disappearance of Gustay Bauch, the American.

Bauch Imprisoned but Released. General Villa's report stated that Bauch had been put in jall at Chihuahua City on suspicion of being an agent of an unfriendly interest. Villa said, however, that the American had been released and that since then the state authorities had been unable to locate him. He promised continued efforts to obtain more information about his disappearance.

General Carranza, it was reported, will leave at once for the east on the trip which will place him at least ten days out of communication while on his overland march from Naco, Sonora, to Casas Grandes, Chihuahua.

New Exclusion Order. An order placed in regid effect today resulted in the excluding from Mexico of all persons who had come from ter-titory held by the federals. This hin-dered several American business men who had business on the Mexican side of the line at this point. It was ex-plained that the order had ben made necessary by recent transmission of military information.

TO PROBE BENTON CASE. Carranza Appoints Commission to Make Investigation.

El Paso, Texas, March 4.-A Mexican commission to examine into the death of William S. Benton, appointed by Venustiano Carranza, supreme chief of the revolution, arrived here tonight and will review the findings of the al-leged courtmartial independently of the Anglo-American commission, the work of which has been retarded by diplomatic technicalities.

The new commission is composed of General Kamon Frauto, president; Dr. Miguel Silva and Miguel Lara. They expect to begin work tomorrow to ascertain, according to their instructions, whether the arrest and conviction of Benton were according to due form of law and justice. Unless some flaw in the proceedings is discovered they are not expected to exhume the Briton's

Has Rendered Valuable Service in the State Department for 10 Months-Favored Recognition of Huerta.

Washington, March 4 .- John Bassett Moore, counsellor of the state depart-ment, and the recognized strong man of the present administration on international questions, concluded his service with the government today when President Wilson accepted the resignation which Mr Moore had submitted a month ago. Coming at the present time when international affairs occupy the forefront of official and public at-tention, the departure of Mr. Moore from a position second only to that of Mr. Eryan attracted widespread attention and comment

Resignation Tendered Feb. 2. Although the resignation had been in the president's hands since Feb. 2 last, to take effect today, this fact had not been generally known. There had been reports several months ago that the counsellor of the state department did not find his labors entirely congenial, and was about to resign but these renot find his labors entirely congenial, and was about to resign, but these reports were promptly denied at the time. It was then explained, and again officially explained today, that Mr. Moore had come into the administration with a definite understanding that his tenure was provisional for a year, so that he could return at the expiration of that period to his duties as head of the department of international law at Columbia university. This fact law at Columbia university. This fact was strongly emphasized in the official correspondence made public tonight.

Favored Recognition of Huerta. Although the statements one from President Wilson, one from Mr. Bryan and Mr. Moore's own letter of resigna-tion—made no mention of the subject, it is a matter of common report that Mr. Moore's personal viewpoint on some of the most important policies re-lating to foreign affairs were not al-ways in accord with those of his su-periors. At the same time it has been ways in accord with those of his su-periors. At the same time, it has been recognized that he gave unswerving loyalty and unprejudiced counsel to the fulfillment of the policies as finally adopted. It is said in this connection that when the question of recognizing the Huerta government was being disthe Huerta government was being discussed, Mr. Moore, when called upon for an opinion, submitted a memorandum citing precedents by which the United States would be justified in recognizing the Huerta government. Previous to Mr. Moore's appointment, however, the general policy of the administration not to recognize governments set up by arbitrary force had been outlined in a statement from President Wilson. When it was definitely determined not to recognize the Huerta government, Mr. Moore contributed his energies to carrying out the policy officially determined upon.

Within a comparatively short time afterward 190 men and one woman of the party that had started on the march were in custody and shortly after 11 o'clock the entire company had been gathered in the domestic relations court for a heaving. lations court for a hearing. Tannen-baum, their leader, was charged with inciting to riot and held in $5,000 bail for a hearing tomorrow. The arraign-ment of the other prisoners then was proceeded with as rapidly as the clerks could make out the proper papers.

ARGUED IN FAVOR

OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE Feur Senators Advocate Prepea Constitutional Amendment

Washington, March 4 .- The cause of woman suffrage was championed in the senate today by Senators Thomp-son, Owen, Chamberlain and Sherman, who spoke in support of the proposed national movement to give women the vote in all states. Senators Reed and Vardaman were prepared to speak against the amendment and probably will do so tomorrow when a vote may

As author of the proposed amend-ment, Senator Chamberlain told of the ment, senator Chamberlain told of the influence of women who have the ballot. In response to a question by Senator Reed, the Oregon senator agreed that the recent reforms in his state were inaugurated before the women were given a right to vote.

The attitude of some southern sen-ators was indicated during the dis-cussion when Senator Vardaman said: "The negro question may compel me to vote against this amendment."
